COMMITTEE WORK 101

How to go from a topic to a resolution

AIM

- create a safe environment where every delegate feels free to express their opinion

-gather all the ideas necessary to construct a complete resolution

- finish in time

- have fun

IMPORTANCE

The way you structure your CW has many consequences: it defines

- the flow of your work and discussions

- the degree of creativity that you will see

- the quality of your resolution

- the probability of you finishing in time

CW STRUCTURE

A. CLASSIC STRUCTURE

1. Getting started (incl. golden rules, decoration of committee room)

2. Topic and question definition, understanding the terms, defining priorities

3. General Brainstorming on the topic

4. Grouping of all ideas

5. Discussion of the categories, one by one. Typically in this order: all problems, the main aim of the resolution, the solutions

6. Phrasing of all agreements

B. ADAPTED STRUCTURE

1. Getting started (incl. golden rules, decoration of committee room)

2. Topic and question definition, understanding the terms, defining priorities

3. Brainstorming on parts of the topic, eventual grouping

4. Discussion of part of the topic

5. Phrasing of the achieved agreement

6. Back to 3), repetition of the process until all parts of the topic are covered.

1. GETTING STARTED

AIM

- wrapping up Teambuilding
- set the mood for CW

ACTIVITIES

- Golden rules
- Fears and expectations
- Make the room yours

2. TOPIC DEFINITION - QUESTIONS

AIM

-The delegates know what the topic is about.

-The delegates have the same level of factual knowledge.

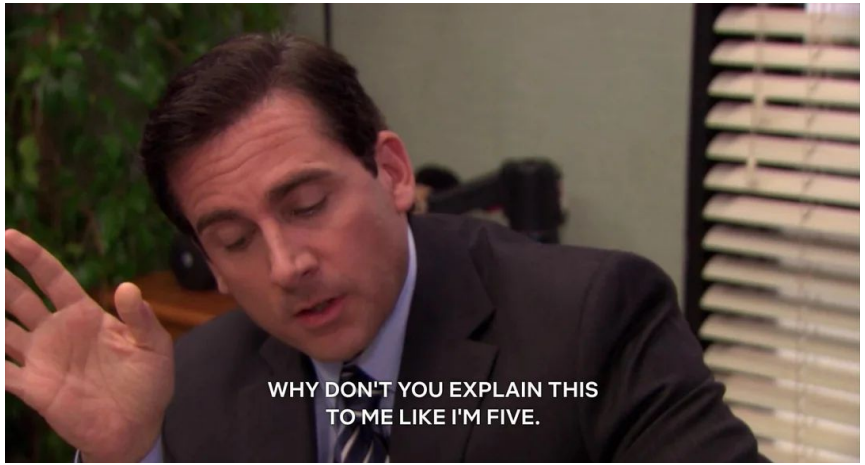

ACTIVITIES

-Underline key words / Hashtags

-Rephrase topic sentence.

-Explain like as if I was 5

-Wall of knowledge

3. BRAINSTORMING

Option 1: problems / solutions

Option 2: categories

Have them sub-categorise the topic in sub-issues (political - legal - social - environmental - economic - cultural - ...).

Then brainstorm - group - discuss - phrase for each category respectively

Option 3: the sorting hat

Delegates get a stakeholder assigned whose “hat” they’re wearing and whose interest they’re representing while brainstorming.

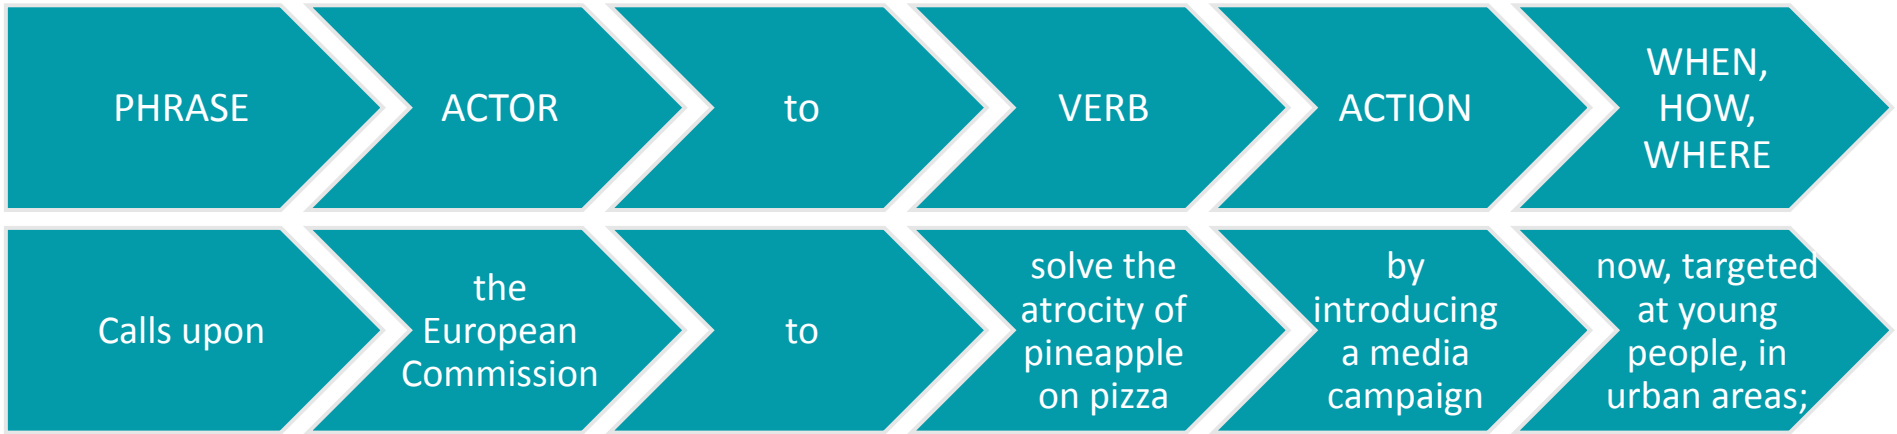

4. GROUPING - DISCUSSING

5. PHRASING

A. INTRODUCTORY CLAUSES

B. OPERATIVE CLAUSES

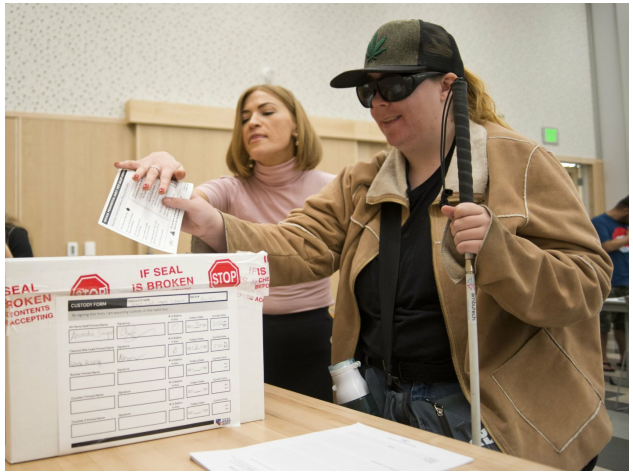

EXPLAIN THE GA PROCEDURE - ASSIGN ROLES

GA procedure*

Roles assignment:

- Right at the end of CW.
- By consensus.
- If no time, blind voting.

CLOSURE

- Debriefing.
- Hopes/fears for GA
- Love wall.
